Announcement to Students

The administration of the Faculty of Law and Political Science informs all students (across all specializations) that exam questions related to remote assessments (terminology or English language) have been integrated into the official website of the faculty. Therefore, each student must access the website, download the exam file according to their level, and submit their response according to the exam schedule that will be published later.

Note: Students should pay attention to the question format; the answer can be provided on a question paper or on a blank sheet depending on the presented model.
