

Final Exam :Second Year - public Law. Course: English Language

FULL NAME :

Question 1: Based on the text you provided, here are 10 True or False statements in English:

1. A legal rule is mandatory and can be enforced without the intervention of the state. ()
2. Moral and religious norms have the same binding force as legal rules because they are also mandatory. ()
3. Direct democracy allows citizens to participate in all functions of public authority, including judicial, executive, and administrative roles. ()
4. Representative democracy relies on citizens electing representatives who govern on their behalf. ()
5. Legal sanctions may include fines, imprisonment, and civil compensation. ()
6. Legislation is the primary source of legal rules in modern legal systems. ()
7. Custom is not considered a source of legal rules. ()
8. Academic doctrine helps guide legal interpretation but does not constitute a binding legal rule. ()
9. Legal rules aim only to organize relations between individuals and not between individuals and the state. ()
10. General legal principles, such as good faith and equality, are considered sources of legal rules. ()

Question 2 : What is the definition of Civil Law?

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....