

University Djilali Bounama

Private Law Department

Second-Year Law Students – Family Law Mrs .Amouri Nassima

FULL NAME :

PS : Answer on the subject

activity one :

Put true or false :

1. In Algerian family law, marriage is considered both a legal contract and a religious obligation. ()
2. Algerian family law allows for polygamy without any legal restrictions or conditions. ()
3. Islamic law permits divorce but views it as a last resort when reconciliation fails. ()
4. Under Algerian law, both spouses have equal rights and responsibilities within marriage. ()
5. In Islam, a woman can initiate divorce through a process known as "khul", under specific conditions. ()

Activity two :

How is divorce regulated in Islamic jurisprudence?

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

Good Luck