

University Djillali Bounama

Law Department

Alternative Exam

Second Year - public Law. Course: English Language

Question 1:

"While the fundamental components of democratic electoral systems worldwide aim to ensure accurate representation, provide governmental stability, and promote fairness in political power distribution; how does the Algerian legislator balance these goals within the national legislative framework? Analyze the structural mechanisms introduced by the Algerian Organic Law on the Electoral System, evaluating its impact on political pluralism and institutional stability."